Dear creditors of FTX Digital,

Thank you for creating a non-customer creditor account on the FTX Digital Claim Portal. The second stage of the portal has now opened for your account.

The Joint Official Liquidators (“JOLs”) of FTX Digital Markets Ltd (In Official Liquidation) (“FTX Digital”) are inviting non-customer creditors to complete an electronic Proof of Debt form on the FTX Digital Claim Portal if they believe they have a claim against the FTX Digital estate.

Please log into your FTX Digital Claim Portal account to lodge an electronic claim form (<https://digitalmarketsclaim.pwc.com/>). This link is also accessible from the home page of the FTX Digital case website (<https://www.pwc.com/ftx>).

Once successfully logged in, please click on the button labeled ‘Submit Proof of Debt’ located on the left of the dashboard. This link will direct users to an electronic Proof of Debt form. Please review the pre-populated details and complete the form, attaching any evidence to corroborate your claim before submitting.

Following the submission of your claim, the JOLs will undergo a formal adjudication process during which further supporting evidence may be requested to substantiate the position, creditors will be notified of the adjudication results thereafter. The JOLs will be in touch once the claim adjudication process for your claim has started.

If you face any difficulties completing your electronic Proof of Debt or have any questions regarding the process, please send an email to gbl_fdm_creditors@pwc.com.

Kind regards,

On behalf of the Joint Official Liquidators of FTX Digital Markets Ltd
