

PwC Legal

Legal expertise.
Business understanding.
It's all connected.

Trinidad and Tobago

Connecting legal, business and technology.

Discover the connected effect

In today's fast-moving world, it's more important than ever to have a legal partner who understands all aspects of your business and embraces technology to help you move ahead effectively and decisively.

From predicting the impact of regulatory, economic and political shifts on your business to understanding how to future-proof your strategy, we connect your challenges with the right expertise in Legal and across PwC. Together, we help you:

- Navigate complexity and execute with confidence
- Find new ways to grow
- Transform ways of working

More than a law firm

- We believe in the power of legal to solve your most significant challenges and take on the future. Working with us is not just about legal advice.
- It's about seeing beyond uncertainty and risk to uncover new opportunities.
- It's about harnessing the power of PwC's global reach, local presence and industry depth to chart a future-ready path to success.
- It's about bringing the right combination of legal insight, business understanding and technological innovation to transform how you work and make the right decisions.

Connect to more

- We deliver the connected expertise that bridges all aspects of your business – so you can grow and protect it, today and tomorrow.

Connect what matters. Anticipate what's next.

How can we help you

Entity, Governance and Compliance

If you're forming a new company, we'll work with your tax advisors to achieve compliance with all relevant laws and regulations and advise you on how to structure your business.

Then we'll help you with governance. We can assist with board training, advise on board and committee structure and best practices, and evaluate board and director effectiveness.

To help you manage your business, we provide corporate secretarial and board support, agency services and compliance guidance.

Corporate restructuring, mergers and acquisitions, and dissolution

When your company pursues mergers and acquisitions or restructuring, we'll help you meet statutory requirements and provide advice on the optimal structure for your business. To help you gain investor confidence, we'll deliver these services with professionalism, independence, efficiency, transparency and integrity.

Legal services

- Entity formation
- Company secretary/registered agent
- Corporate restructuring
- Corporate governance
- Liquidations and dissolutions
- Board and shareholder meetings coordination and minutes taking

From complexity to clarity

Corporate and Commercial Advisory

Our corporate and commercial advisory team brings a deep understanding of today's legal issues, business opportunities and risks to deliver commercially-focused strategic legal advice and services.

Our corporate and commercial advisory practice combines legal expertise with sector experience and a proactive approach covering legal, practical and commercial issues. PwC Legal's global coverage, as part of the largest legal network in the world, experience of multi-jurisdictional projects and integration with PwC is a tangible differentiator compared with traditional law firms.

Our corporate and commercial advisory work extends to working with public and private companies, financial institutions, family-owned businesses, private equity and venture capital investors, sovereign wealth funds, government, not-for-profit organisations, and high-net-worth individuals.

Our corporate and commercial advisory includes the following:

- Mergers and acquisitions
- Corporate restructuring
- General corporate and commercial advice
- Private equity and inbound investment
- Market entry advice and structuring
- Joint venture arrangements
- Foreign direct investment review
- Commercial contracts review
- Franchising, agency and distribution arrangements
- Intellectual property

In every connection, go further.

Tax disputes and litigation

PwC Legal's group of Tax Disputes and Litigation Practice consists of two integrated teams that are responsible for the resolution of tax and commercial disputes. We offer our clients the highest level of dispute resolution and negotiation skills, often enabling them to reach the most economically advantageous solution still in the pre-trial phase of a dispute.

The core part of Tax Disputes and Litigation Practice of PwC Legal is related to tax disputes. Being a member of the group of global PwC's Tax Controversy and Dispute Resolution, upon necessary we can always utilise the support from the world class PwC tax experts and offer our clients exceptional solutions that have already been proven in international practice. We aim to offer customers preventive measures to avoid tax risks and efficiently manage them, and if these risks materialise, - to resolve tax disputes in the most efficient manner.

The Litigation Practice involves legal representation of clients in courts of all instances. Our clients have succeeded to win the cases before national courts. In the eyes of international and local clients we have already managed to earn the reputation of a reliable partner when dealing with various commercial disputes and conflicts in courts.

Our services

- Support and consultations during the tax dispute prevention and tax investigation/review phases
- Legal representation in tax disputes heard during the pre-trial stage of the dispute and in courts of all instances
- Development of a dispute resolution strategy and its implementation

Connected expertise.

Immigration

A holistic approach to immigration matters

PwC's immigration professionals work closely with colleagues in Global Tax Services, Employment Law and Human Resources to deliver business focused advice on global mobility programs and immigration. More than 1,800 PwC immigration professionals – providing immigration services in more than 175 countries and territories – have the commercial acumen, the local contacts, and the wealth of experience to help you gain value from your immigration and mobility strategy.

We offer a range of immigration-related legal services, including:

- Strategic planning and compliance advice;
- Assistance with work and temporary permit applications;
- Assistance with citizenship and permanent residency applications;
- Co-ordinated worldwide migration strategy;
- Immigration audits;
- Drafting mobility policies;
- Advice on entry permission for inward investors; and
- Discretionary applications and personalised immigration assistance for key individuals.

Our team

Our legal team comprises Attorneys-at -Law which collectively has over 30 years experience and has extensive local and international experience in tax, commercial transactional advisory, corporate compliance and immigration. We also leverage off of the experience and technical expertise of our global colleagues to provide additional technical and industry experience where necessary.

Contact us:

Tonika Wilson-Gabriel

Partner

+1 868 391 3942

tonika.wilson@pwc.com