

Financial Statement Analysis 101

What is the training about?

Understanding the condition of a company is really essential. Users usually determine the company's condition through analysis of financial statements before making any important decisions. Failure to understand a company's condition can result in bad decision-making. Join this training to get a clear picture of how figures in financial statements are linked to the others, in order to describe how well the business is performing during the period and to determine the condition of a certain entity at a certain date, as well as information about how liquid the company is.

Who is it for?

Finance professionals who are responsible for analysis and decision-making such as acceptance of customers' requests for credit facility and other related decisions. This training is suitable for any industry in general.

What will you learn?

What is financial statements?

- Statutory vs. management Financial Reporting
- General features of financial statements
- Elements of financial statements
- Components of financial statements
- Information provided in financial statements
- Three main statements

Overview of financial statements analysis

- Objectives of financial statements analysis
- Users of financial statements

Various methods of financial statements analysis

- The common approach
- Vertical approach
- Horizontal approach
- Ratio analysis

Financial statements analysis: key accounting ratios

- Profitability
- Liquidity and solvency
- Operating efficiency
- Shareholders' perspective

Impacts of Big-3 PSAK implementation and COVID-19

- PSAK 71 - Financial instruments
- PSAK 72 - Revenue from contracts with customers
- PSAK 73 - Leases
- COVID-19 implications

Case study

- Analyse the financial statements of a manufacturing and service company and interpret the result
- Debrief: what the results mean and what to notice

For more information about this training or if you would like to run this in-house, please contact:

Martinus Budiman
Manager

+62 812 8578 3033
martinus.budiman@pwc.com

Febru Aulia
Senior Associate

+62 888 9808 069
aulia.febru@pwc.com