

Navigating Competition Law: Essential Insights for Businesses

27 November 2024

Understanding competition law is essential to ensuring compliance, fostering fair practices, and preparing your business for future challenges. This training will provide you with essential insights on Mongolian competition law, including anti-competitive agreements and practices, regulations for dominant entities, merger controls, Mongolian court practices and international trends.

What will you learn?

◆ Key concepts and principles

Understand the fundamental concepts and objectives of competition law and its importance in maintaining market fairness.

◆ Anti-Competitive agreements & practices

Learn to identify and avoid behaviors that could harm competition, including price-fixing, market sharing, and bid-rigging.

◆ Global and Local Trends

Explore international best practices and local court practices in relation to competition law

◆ Regulations for Dominant Entities

Gain insights on the regulations for businesses with significant market power.

◆ Merger Control Procedures:

Explore the rules and processes for mergers and acquisitions, ensuring they do not negatively impact market competition.

◆ Understanding business risks

Understand potential risks under competition law perspective.

Training agenda

- The importance of Competition law and key concepts;
- Anti-Competitive Agreements under the Mongolian Competition Law;
- Anti-Competitive practices under the Mongolian Competition Law;
- Considerations for Dominant Entities;
- Merger Control Regulations;
- Court Practices in competition law;
- International Trends on competition law.

Who is this training for?

- Directors and business leaders;
- Operations managers;
- Management team members;
- Lawyers and in-house legal counsels;
- Compliance officers;
- Sales and Marketing Manager;
- Business Development Manager.

Tutors

Munkhjargal Ragchaakhuu

Senior Legal Manager
Tax, Legal and People Services

Professional summary

Possesses extensive knowledge of Mongolian laws and regulations. Experienced in providing various regulatory compliance advices for all-size businesses in relation to Mongolian laws. Licensed lawyer and Attorney-at-law in Mongolia with over 15 years of professional experience.

Azzaya Enkhjargal

Senior Associate
Tax, Legal and People Services

Professional summary

Specializes in competition law as a key focus area. Has extensive research experience in competition law. Advises both local and international clients on regulatory compliance. Licensed lawyer and Attorney-at-law in Mongolia

Namuunbayar Ulziibayar

Associate
Tax, Legal and People Services

Professional summary

Assists wide range of international and local clients on regulatory issues, ensuring compliance with Mongolian laws and regulations. Specializes in competition law as one of her key focus areas.

Training Details

Registration: 8:45

Duration: 9:00 – 13:00

Language: Mongolian

Location: Ulaanbaatar hotel

Certificate: To be provided upon completion of the course

Training fee

MNT 400 000 + VAT

Contact information

+976 7000 9089

mn_academy@pwc.com

Click Here to view comprehensive list of our upcoming training sessions:

