

Business process re-engineering

7 May 2025

Training objective:

Business Process Re-engineering (BPR) open seminar equips participants with skills to analyse, redesign, automate and optimize business processes, focusing on efficiency of resource utilization, identifying areas for improvement.

Who is this training for?

- Business process and control owners
- Finance and accounting professionals
- Risk management department
- Internal auditors
- Business managers and executives

This training is for anyone involved in the assessment, redesign, implementation, or management of business processes.

As a result of this training, you will learn to:

- ✓ Recognize the strategic importance of BPR principles
- ✓ Identify and address inefficiencies
- ✓ Use technology to streamline processes
- ✓ Engage stakeholders and overcome resistance
- ✓ Apply project management skills for BPR initiatives
- ✓ Utilize KPIs for continuous improvement
- ✓ Implement tech solutions for process enhancement

Training tutors:

Khaliun Ganbold, CISA, CIA
Manager
Broader Assurance and
Advisory Services

Delgergerel Batsuuri
Senior Consultant
Broader Assurance and
Advisory Services

Contact us:

Tel: +976 7000 9089
Email: mn_academy@pwc.com

Details:

Training fee: MNT 600,000 + VAT
Language: Mongolian
Workshop: 9:00 - 17:00
This is an in-class training