Programme

As Malaysia's second budget under the Malaysia Madani economy framework, how will Budget 2025 impact the nation's economic development? And how will it benefit the different societal segments in the country? Join us at PwC Malaysia's Budget 2025 Seminar, where our tax professionals will delve into these measures and offer detailed insights throughout the event.

Time	Session
8:00am	Registration
8:45am	Welcome address by Steve Chia, Tax Leader, PwC Malaysia
9:00am	Budget 2025: Impact on the business and the broader economic landscape Our panel of experts, including a guest speaker from the Ministry of Finance and an experienced economist, will share their perspectives on the Budget 2025 proposals and its impact to the economy. Engage with our panellists in an insightful discussion, and have your questions answered.
10:15am	Coffee networking
10:45am	Budget 2025: Analysing the key tax proposals What are the key measures introduced in Budget 2025 and how will they impact you? PwC tax professionals will share their analyses on the proposals and offer their insights into what they mean for you. Then, they will respond to your questions in a Q&A session together with a guest panellist from the Ministry of Finance.
1:00pm	Lunch
2:00pm	Current tax landscape and Inland Revenue Board of Malaysia's approach In this session, our panel of experts, including a guest speaker from the Inland Revenue Board of Malaysia (IRBM) and an experienced tax professional from the commercial sector, will share their perspectives on the current tax landscape. Gain insight into IRBM's approach and direction after the SVDP 2.0 and the recent implementation of e-Invoicing.
3:30pm	Coffee networking
3:45pm	Artificial Intelligence &amp; Digitalisation: Impact and opportunities in business Join us for an insightful panel session that explores the far-reaching impacts of Artificial Intelligence (AI) and digitalisation on various business functions, including finance and tax. Our panel of industry leaders will discuss the latest trends, opportunities, and challenges in adopting these cutting-edge technologies.
5:00pm	End
