by PwC's Academy

Message from Leader

“Our network of firms have proudly worked with ACCA as a longstanding partner internationally. With our newly launched ACCA training service in Vietnam, we hope to expand our partnership with ACCA and support Vietnamese learners with our network of experts and high-quality training. This new programme aims to address the upskilling needs of our internal workforce and goes beyond, assisting other organisations in bridging upskilling gaps and preparing for the future of work. There is a growing demand for finance professionals to acquire high standards and ethics, so we believe in the importance of driving sustainable economic growth by bridging upskilling gaps for Vietnamese to meet the international workforce needs”

The self-learn platform allows you to learn at your own pace, giving you the flexibility to study whenever and wherever is convenient for you.

Comprehensive Study Materials

You can access a wide variety of useful materials, including video lectures, full course notes covering the entire syllabus, and integrated computer-based mock tests.

Progress Tracking and Reporting

You can track your learning progress through the course checkpoints and continuous assessment. Continuous assessment is an ongoing evaluation method that provides a regular check on your progress throughout the course.
