

Seminar

A Quick View of Mobility in Malaysia, Myanmar, Thailand, and Vietnam

The complexities of sending individuals to work internationally continue to grow, with tax directors concerned about permanent establishment issues, corporate tax exposures and HR teams concerned that laws are not being inadvertently breached in tax, immigration, and social security areas.

On top of these concerns, in today's world of 24/7 information access, the teams have to balance the need for information with the constant risk of information overload.

Join our experts from Malaysia, Myanmar, Thailand and Vietnam as they take you through the top 5 things and the top 5 tax challenges you need to know when managing mobile employees in these regions.

The experts from these countries will help you navigate the "tax, immigration, and social security" landscape of the area where you gain only the most crucial insights needed to help you on mobilising talent into these countries.

Who should attend?

HR and Finance personnel responsible for tax and immigration matters

Seminar will be presented in English.
